

Call for Submissions:

The Conversation Continues: A Gedenkschrift for C.J. Prince

C.J. Prince wore many hats - both literally and figuratively. In response to one of her typically generous assessments, I wrote her:

You shimmer

kindness and warmth

wherever you go and are...

And so she did. It is now our turn to do for her.

In honor of the way she radiated love and wisdom, we are asking for contributions to celebrate C.J.'s life and spirit. The volume will be an archive of memories, thoughts, wonder, and inspiration. Proceeds from the volume will be donated to the Mother Tree Project.

What we are looking for:

Reactions to her absence, celebrations of her being, and trails of events she set in motion. Submissions could take the form of:

- Poetry
- Reflections & Short Essays
- Art & Visual Responses
- Collaborative Echoes

To be a part of this memorial celebration:

Create as she did- then send it our way!

- Send your work to: essayfaire@gmail.com or mimnobreak@gmail.com
- Format: Whatever works for you— Word docs, PDFs, or high-res images.

- Note: Please include a short (1-2 sentence) note about your connection to C.J.

If you are not comfortable creating, we'd still love to include you! We will include a Tabula Gratulatoria so that your connection can be included. Just send us your name and a couple of sentences about your connection to C.J.

We are gathering these pieces until 30 April 2026.

At the bottom of her emails, C.J. ran the following. Let's follow her example and leave her mark on this planet well-noted by those who cherished her presence.

Shine. Laugh. Play. Dance
